Knuffle Bunny

DV0113

P 9 min SCHOLAS 2004

Trixie, her Daddy, and her favorite stuffed animal, Knuffle Bunny, take a trip to the laundromat. Trixie helps her Daddy sort and start the laundry, and then they begin to walk home through the streets of Brooklyn. Suddenly, Trixie realizes that Knuffle Bunny is missing! She tries with all her might to communicate this to her Daddy, but unfortunately, he doesn't understand her wordless pleas. Mommy, however, understands right away and the whole family rushes back to the laundromat to look for Knuffle Bunny. In the midst of the chaos, Trixie spots her beloved friend and utters her very first words! This movie beautifully juxtaposes crisp black-and-white photographs of Brooklyn with lively animation. Children will relate to Trixie's plight, while adults will fondly remember the first words of their own children.

The Librarian from the Black Lagoon

DV0107

P 9 min SCHOLAS 1997

The stories circulating about the school library are downright terrifying. The librarian, Mrs. Beamster, is said to laminate people who talk or whisper. She is also known to put glue on the chairs to prevent wriggling, and to recite the Dewey decimal System during storytime. The shelves in the library are rumored to be electrified and kids need to go through the Decontamination Room before entering. No wonder the students dread their first library visit! School legend grows to enormous proportions, up until the moment they arrive at the library entrance. Students will look forward to a tripe to their school library, after learning about the The Librarian from the Black Lagoon!

The Man Who Walked Between The Towers CC

DV0123

P-K 10 min SCHOLAS 2005

Inspired by the true story of Philippe Petit, a young French aerialist, this animated adaptation of the Caldecott Medal-winning book brings to breathtaking life the excitement and suspense of his daring 1974 high wire walk between the two towers of the World Trade Center.

Open Wide: Tooth School Inside

DV0108

P 18 min SCHOLAS 2006

This witty movie makes learning about teeth entertaining and interesting. The teacher, Dr. Flossman, has a class of thirty-two teeth, who need to learn about brushing, flossing, plaque, enamel, and...cavities. The hilarious cast of characters includes eight incisors, four canines, eight premolars, twelve molars (including the four wisdom teeth), a bad dentist, and the Tooth Fairy. This movie cleverly intertwines fascinating facts (George Washington's teeth were not made of wood, contrary to popular belief) with humor and fantasy, and will inspire students to brush, floss, and generally care for their pearly whites!

Planting A Rainbow

DV0109

P 8 min SCHOLAS 2005

Planting a garden is an activity that brings the wonders and joys of the life cycle into the lives of both children and adults. This ageless process is captured in this vibrant and poetically simple production based on the book by Lois Ehlert. Children will be captivated by the beautiful flowers and plants that emerge as the seasons

Seven Blind Mice

P 7 min 1992

Seven blind mice come upon a mysterious Something by the side of their pond. One by one, they venture out to discover what it is. However, each mouse comes back with a different report. "Its a pillar!" "It's a fan!" "It's a snake!" "It's a rope!" Soon, they all begin to argue. It is not until the seventh mouse goes out and runs up, down, and around the entire Something that its true identity becomes apparent. Vivid artwork makes this wise tale engaging and lively. Students will enjoy the follies of the mice as the Something is revealed, part by part.

Snowflake Bentley CC

DV0122

P-K 20 min SCHOLAS 2003

Ever since Willie Bentley was a young boy, he was fascinated with snowflakes. He looked at them under a microscope and studied their icy crystals. He even drew pictures of them finding no two snowflakes exactly alike. This is his story, told with grace and respect for the world's most famous snowflake authority.

So You Want to Be President? CC

DV0117

P-I 27 min SCHOLAS 2002

In the time-honored tradition of political commentary, author Judith St. George and Caldecott Medal winner David Small celebrate the public and private lives of forty-two Presidents with humor and flair. Imparting much information and many laughs, this rip-roaring look at the men who have all wanted to be President deserves a place on every library and classroom shelf.

Stars! Stars! Stars!

DV0112

P 8 min SCHOLAS 2005
